Health Promotion and Community Engagement Supervisor

The Health Promotion and Community Engagement supervisor position will develop, implement and coordinate evidence-based health education and health promotion activities including policy, system and environmental change strategies, programs, processes and interventions to support community based healthy living, and health prevention efforts; develop, coordinate and facilitate community engagement and community health action teams to identify and address health problems, disparities and social determinants of health.

Duties Include:

- Assists with the development of a comprehensive community health assessment (CHA) and a community health improvement plan (CHIP)
- Coordinates, leads, facilitates and develops community and county-wide coalitions
- Aligns efforts with healthcare and other partners including data, outcomes, equity and access relating to chronic disease and injury
- Determines resources required for projects and the most feasible and cost effective methods to gather data; develops work plans; assigns priorities and time limits
- Assists or coordinates with writing grants; assists with identifying and recommending grant expenditures
- Other related duties as assigned

Requirements:
Bachelor’s degree in community health, education, public health or related field with a minimum of two (2) years of experience in public health, policy management, or equivalent; a Master’s degree in public health, education or public administration preferred. Must possess a valid driver’s license, and be insurable through FCPH’s provider.

Deadline for Applying: Sunday, February 19, 2017

Salary Range: $25.62/hour - $33.30/hour (non-exempt position)

Interested applicants should send resume, cover letter and FCPH application to:
Franklin County Public Health
Attn: Human Resources – Health Promotion supervisor
280 East Broad Street
Columbus, Ohio 43215-4562

OR by email to: fcphjobs@franklincountyohio.gov (subject: Health Promotion supervisor)

No phone calls please.
Franklin County Public Health is proud to be an equal opportunity employer committed to hiring a diverse and inclusive workforce.

- PLEASE POST-